I wont ac cept your fine coach and six with four hor ses black as__ pitch, I wont ac cept your fine coach and six,_____ nor will I__ walk a- broad__ with you nor will I walk a broad with you nor will I__ walk a - broad with you

Proposal One:

Madam I present you a fine coach and six,
with four horses black as pitch,
Madam I present you a fine coach and six.
If you will walk abroad with me,
if you will walk abroad with me
If you will walk aboard with me

Rejection:

I won't accept your fine coach and six
with four horses black as pitch,
I won't accept your fine coach and six
Nor will I walk abroad with you,
Nor will I walk abroad with you
Nor will I walk abroad with you.

Proposal Two:

Madam I present you a fine easy chair to sit in the garden and take the air

(Follow same pattern for subsequent verses:)

Proposal Three:

Oh madam I present you a fine silken gown with four long yards trailing on the ground

Proposal Four:

Madam I present you a fine golden watch
To hang by your side and tell you the time

Proposal Five:

Oh madam I present you the keys to my chest
And all the gold and jewels I possess

Proposal Six:

Madam I present you the keys to my heart
And married we will be and never part

Acceptance: I will accept the keys to your heart
And married we will be and never part
And I will walk abroad with you
And I will walk abroad with you
And I will walk abroad with you
