 a stain on his shirt from he don't know where,
 but a smile on his face like he just don't care cos tonight's gonna be the time for dancing

He breaks his back working down the mine selling his soul for a dollar and dime but a cup of tea and he'll be fine for tonight;s the night to dance

Chorus

So let's dance, feel the groove and dance let your body move and dance, put your cares away safe away for another day and Dance feel the groove and dance let your body move and dance Jiggle the old bones

Jeanie comes home from a day in town two hard jobs she'll just hold down but now you'll see no hint of a frown for now's the time for dancing

Kids are growing and doing ok
 But Jeannie worries any way Saves her money for rainy day
 But tonight they're gonna dance....

Chorus

Little Sue's got a brand new man A blue eyed boy with a Midwest tan she says she's gonna keep him if she can But he needs to learn to dance for...

Tonight's gonna be their first big date Mum and dad will seal their fate so He better be smart and not be late For tonight they're going to dance

Chorus

Kids have grown and left the home
 Billy and Jean feel all alone This great house once cosy and warm, it just feels empty but Christmas time is coming soon now they'll need to clear the rooms 'cos everyone is coming home and now's the time to dance

Chorus
